

RUMANIA IS OVERAWED BY BIG ARMY

Great Russian Army Gathered Near Her Border Is Said to Exert a Powerful Influence Toward Forcing the Country into War on Behalf of the Allies

HAS WAITED TO DETERMINE STRONGER

If the Allies Gain Preponderance of Numbers in Balkans, the Rumanian Statesmen Intimate Their Country Will Join Forces with the Enemies of Germany

London, Nov. 26.—Greek affairs having emerged from the uncertainty which for some time has been a potential menace to the allied campaign in the Balkans, Rumania's problem now commands chief attention in Europe. Whatever German efforts have been made in Rumania, it is believed here that they have been largely offset by the presence of large Russian forces close to the frontier and the now rapidly developing Russian preparations with Odessa as a base, from which no other interference is possible than her immediate entrance into the Balkan conflict.

Emperor Nicholas is said to have promised the appearance of troops in Bulgaria within a week. There are increasing indications that this campaign will be developed via Rumania, and it is reported that conferences are now being held to obtain the latter's consent. This consent, it is clearly intimated by Rumanian statesmen, has depended on whether the allies gain a preponderance of forces in the Balkans. Rumania gives evidence of being impressed strongly by the concentration of 250,000 Russian troops at Ismail and Reni near the border.

Fall of Gorizia Seems Imminent.

No important achievement is recorded on either side in Serbia since the German announcement of the fall of Pristina and Mitrovitz. With only a small strip of territory left to defend, Serbia's leaders declare she is unbeaten and can still harass the invaders. The Bulgarian commander, on the other hand, says King Peter's troops will be put out of action in a few days.

No official report had reached London at noon to-day of the capture of Gorizia by the Italians, although the fall of the city is regarded as imminent. This important system of fortifications commanding the railway lines connecting the upper and lower Isonzo and called the key to the Austrian defenses to the north has been the objective for which the Italian army has been struggling for several months.

MORE GROUND GAINED BY THE ITALIANS

Stormed Fresh Trenches on Calvario Crest and Repulsed Strong Counter-Attack By Austrians, Says Italian Official Report.

Rome, Nov. 26.—The capture of additional ground on the Calvario crest, northeast of Gorizia, was claimed in the war office statement issued last night, which says:

"On the heights northeast of Gorizia the battle continued vigorously yesterday. We extended the ground occupied on the Calvario crest by storming fresh trenches. An enemy counter attack was repulsed by violent hand-to-hand fighting and bomb throwing. On the Carso plateau we also made progress in the Monte San Michele zone to the north, between Ronchini and Petosane, and to the south toward San Martino, where we took 34 prisoners."

WILSON TO KEEP OUT OF FORD PEACE PLAN

Will Not Interpose Any Objections But Will Have No Representation in the Plan.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—President Wilson will take no part in the campaign to bring about a peace conference now being carried on in this and other neutral countries. While he will interpose no objection to the unofficial movement he has heard nothing from Europe which leads him to believe the time is opportune to take any steps. It is stated authoritatively that at the first indication from officials of the warring nations that such efforts will be welcome the president will renew his offer of services to aid in ending the war.

Henry Ford's peace ship will not carry representatives of the American government and unless the situation changes in the meantime the government will not take any part in the proposed meeting.

TELLS THE SPIRITS AGAIN.

Yoshihito Acquaints Ancestors with Fact He is Now Emperor.

Kioto, Nov. 26.—Accompanied by the whole court Emperor Yoshihito left here this morning for Imugunano-mura in the suburbs of Kioto to visit the mausolea of the Emperors Koku, Ninko and Komei. This was to permit the emperor to pay his respects and formally announce the conclusion of the accession to the spirits of his imperial predecessors as he had done previously before the mausolea of Emperor Jimmu and Emperor Mutsuhito.

Emperor Koku was the great grandfather of the late Emperor Mutsuhito, Emperor Ninko the grandfather and Emperor Komei the father of Emperor Mutsuhito. The tombs of those emperors are at the same place in a peaceful hamlet named Imugunano.

The ceremonial conducted before the mausolea was the same as at the mausolea of Emperor Jimmu and Mutsuhito.

After finishing his worship the emperor and the imperial retinue returned to the imperial palace here this afternoon.

FOURTEEN PEOPLE BITTEN.

Man with Rabies Acted Like a Dog in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26.—John Bukowa, aged 27, while suffering from rabies became violent and escaped from a hospital yesterday, running through a crowded thoroughfare scratching and biting at people until a patrol wagon loaded with policemen gave chase.

After a battle with Bukowa in which six police officers and patrolmen were either bitten or scratched the afflicted man was returned to a hospital where he attacked the superintendent, the physician in charge and an orderly. A few hours later he died.

Bukowa was bitten by a dog about two months ago, but no attention was paid to his injuries until he began to act strangely yesterday morning. His escape was made but a short time after entering the hospital.

Fourteen persons were bitten and 11 were at once sent to hospitals to take the Pasteur treatment. All are expected to recover.

FAINTED WHEN ACQUITTED.

Mrs. Mary A. Burns Found Not Guilty of Poisoning Her Husband.

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Mary A. Burns last night was found not guilty of the murder of her husband, Frank A. Burns. She was charged with mixing a powerful poison with liquor which he drank at their home in Nottingham, December 22, 1914. The trial began November 3.

As the verdict was announced, Mrs. Burns shrieked and slid to the floor in a faint. She was quickly revived, however, and was led away to spend the night with relatives.

Mrs. Burns was arrested five days after her husband died from the effects of poison contained in a bottle of whiskey with which she claimed she intended to commit suicide. After mixing the dose, she said, she changed her mind and her husband got hold of the bottle without her knowledge.

The jury was three hours in reaching a decision.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS FIRED ON.

Fire was Returned and Several Mexicans Fell.

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 26.—Fifty-eight Mexican soldiers crossing into the United States at Harrison's ranch, east of here, fired on six American troops of the 10th cavalry yesterday. Twenty-five other troops of the 10th cavalry, who were on reserve post, opened fire on the Mexicans, killing a number of them, according to report, and bringing one wounded prisoner into camp.

MONTPELIER

Funeral of Ex-Alderman John Emmons Was Held To-day.

Funeral services for ex-Alderman John Emmons, who died Tuesday morning at his home, 241 Main street, were held at St. Augustine's church at 9 o'clock this morning, with the rector, Rev. J. P. Long officiating. The bearers were P. H. Ryan, George Fitzgerald, Arthur Hency, Harnes Deslauriers, William Brown and John Mack. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Those from out of town who attended the services were two sons of the deceased, George Emmons of Mystic, Conn., and Frank Emmons of Hartford, Conn.

Friends of Thomas B. McElroy, for a number of years the editor of the Montpelier Journal, will be interested to learn that he is slowly recovering from an illness at his home in Worcester, Mass., which has extended over a period of 16 months. Mr. McElroy was forced to give up his work on the Journal in July, 1914, because of ill health and since that time has not been able to write.

Francis Shaw returned this morning to Burlington to resume his studies at the University of Vermont, having passed yesterday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. William Shaw.

Edward Addy returned to-day to St. Johnsbury, where he is employed, after a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Addy.

Because of the continued warm weather the contractors in charge of the construction of the bridge on State street have been able to pour cement and it is now expected that the bridge will be completed without going to the expense of planking the steel girders and waiting for spring. In order to put the girder next to Langdon street in place, the wooden post holding up one corner of the Ellis block was moved two feet in from the river.

Frank Taylor is taking a few days' vacation from his duties as baggage master at the Central Vermont station.

At the Washington county jail yesterday noon Sheriff Frank H. Tracy provided the 25 inmates with a special Thanksgiving dinner, following a custom adopted some years ago. Chicken, peas, vegetables, and pies were enjoyed by those who were confined in the jail, all of the inmates enjoying the dinner together.

Mrs. Margaret Burdick, night operator in the local telephone exchange, returned today from Woodstock, where she passed Thanksgiving with relatives.

Several parties went in automobiles to Middlebury and East Montpelier last evening from this city to attend dances held in those places.

SUBMARINES SCORE AGAIN

Allies' Vessels Send German Protected Cruiser to Bottom

NEAR PLACE WHERE UNDINE WAS SUNK

Announcement Comes from Semi-Official Source at Petrograd

London, Nov. 26.—The German protected cruiser Frauenleib has been sunk by a submarine of the entente allies, according to a semi-official announcement at Petrograd, says a dispatch to the Central News agency. The Frauenleib is reported to have been sent to the bottom in the same locality where the German protected cruiser Undine, a sister ship, was lost.

A dispatch published in a Copenhagen newspaper on November 11 said a report had been received that the Frauenleib had been sunk off the Swedish coast. Her sister ship, the Undine, was sunk, according to official announcement from Berlin, by submarine torpedoes on the afternoon of November 7, while patrolling the south Swedish coast.

PEPPERED WITH LEAD.

William Hazard Said He Was Shot After Argument.

Woodstock, Nov. 26.—William Hazard, colored, about 65 years old, walked from Hartland to Woodstock late yesterday afternoon and upon his arrival told a Daniel Ledoux of Hartland, following an argument between the latter and Hazard's 18-year-old son, John, concerning payment for two hens. Dr. C. W. Kidder of Woodstock removed several shot from Hazard's scalp. The man's injuries are not severe.

According to the story related by the elder Hazard he and his son called at the Ledoux home to get the hens. Hazard claims that Ledoux over the younger Hazard for chopping wood and that when the hens had been delivered by Ledoux the Hazard boy refused to pay for the services as a chopper.

Hazard claims that Ledoux went into the house and secured a gun, which he put into action as the Hazards were about 60 feet away. In addition to the perforations in his scalp the elder Hazard has several wounds made by pellets from the gun of Ledoux. Hazard notified the town grand juror of the affair and the latter advised him to acquaint the state's attorney with the details of the alleged shooting.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Alderman A. E. Bruce of Brooklyn street has returned to the city, after spending several days in Brooklyn, N. Y., on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McCarthy of Averill street passed Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. McCarthy's parents in Franconia, N. H.

Louis Tomasi, a student at the Worcester, Mass., Polytechnic institute, is spending the Thanksgiving recess at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Sanguinetti.

Felix Letourneau of Manchester, N. H., who is passing several days at his former home in Graniteville, was a visitor in the city to-day, being the guest of his brother, Thomas Letourneau, of the Depot square area.

Freight locomotive No. 203 of the Central Vermont's shifting equipment left the iron on a siding near the Harrison Granite Co.'s plant and the Novelli & Calagui plant near Blackwell street this forenoon and for more than an hour section men worked to bring the iron back to the rails. The aid of the passenger locomotive used in the Williamson branch service was enlisted at last and by 11 o'clock the siding was cleared of all obstructions. When the branch train came along in mid-forenoon, its string of cars was left on a siding just north of the Blackwell street underpass and the engine proceeded to the work of relief.

Interest in rifle shooting among members of the city has taken on a new impetus with the clearing of the range on the Brook street extension and almost any sunny afternoon one may see a group of target hunters making for the broad expanse in the north end. An impromptu competition staged at the range Wednesday afternoon was prolific of many surprises, one of them being the unusual showing made by a competitor in the tenderfoot class. Three bullseyes in quick succession hung up a record for the afternoon at 150 yards and set a pace which older riflemen say will be hard to maintain if the competitions are repeated.

Hotel Barre has been selected as a banquet place for the Spanish-American war veterans of Washington county when they get together on the evening of Monday, Dec. 6, to celebrate the 17th anniversary of their surrendering at San Juan. Letters have been forwarded to all members of the county association and a record attendance is anticipated. A committee consisting of Thomas J. Meyer and William Whitely of Barre and O. D. Clark and A. G. Eaton of Montpelier is busy with some of the preliminary arrangements, although the veterans, in keeping with the custom of spring and autumn reunions held by the associations, are going to let the entertainment program take care of itself. It is enough, the committee states in its full prospectus, to say that there will be plenty of speaking and song when the tables are cleared. The Times is requested to act as cards sent out by the committee to the members should be answered within a few days, in order that ample reservations may be made.

HUNTER'S STUMBLE CAUSED BOY'S DEATH

Isaac Williamson, Aged 9, of Middlebury Was in Line of Shotgun When Older Boy Fell.

Middlebury, Nov. 26.—An inquest was held yesterday into the killing of Isaac Williamson, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, who was shot yesterday when Cushman Delphia, aged 15, stumbled into a hole, causing his shotgun to be discharged. The boys were on Chipman hill, and the injured boy lived just long enough to be carried home.

A party of young men, consisting of Nathan Grady, George Emerson, Harold Delphia and Cushman Delphia, went hunting on Chipman hill during yesterday afternoon. Failing to find any game they came to an open space and there, joined by Donald Williamson and Isaac Williamson, who had been chopping wood, spent some time shooting at a target, with a 10-gauge shotgun and a 32-calibre rifle.

Tiring of that sport, they started on the downward trip, Cushman Delphia carrying the shotgun. Suddenly he stepped into a hole, tripped and then the gun was accidentally discharged. The contents of the shotgun, heavily loaded with double B shot, entered the left shoulder of the little Williamson lad, who was just ahead.

He crumpled up, but retained consciousness, and when Cushman Delphia had reached him complained of pain in his heart. Picking up the injured boy, he sent his brother on the run for his father. The latter met the party coming down the hill, and carried the boy to the house.

He still retained consciousness, but could only murmur "Daddy, Daddy." He died before Dr. L. Dorey and Dr. S. F. Eddy could reach him.

Chief of Police G. H. Chaffee and State's Attorney Allen R. Sturtevant were informed of the fatality and are conducting an investigation.

WOMAN KILLED FOR DEER.

Mrs. Reuben Bartlett Was Shot at Her Husband's Side.

Blanchard, Me., Nov. 26.—Mistaken for a deer in the woods here yesterday, Mrs. Reuben Bartlett was shot down at her husband's side.

During a moment of consciousness, she said: "I am to blame, nobody else." Melvin Bragdon, who fired at what he supposed was a deer, said he saw a movement in the bushes which he thought to be that of an animal. Rushing to the spot after he had fired he found Mr. Bartlett stooping over his wife.

The woman died in the woods after making the brief statement.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

Hunter Killed 50-pound Deer—New Law Considered Vague.

Rutland, Nov. 26.—An all day's jury trial in city court of the Fair Haven district yesterday resulted in the acquittal of Gordon Nelson of West Pawlet on a charge of killing a fawn. It was also the first prosecution in this county since the opening of the deer hunting season against the growing habit of killing small deer. Although the fish and game law says fawns shall not be killed, it does not define, nor do the statutes define a fawn.

Nelson, who is a student in the Albany, N. Y., business college, was arrested on a warrant issued by State's Attorney C. V. Poulin of this city. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty last evening. The deer in the case weighed 50 pounds and looked to be a little bigger than a shepherd dog. It is figured that the hearing cost the state about $50. Had it been tried before a justice with a jury of six men it is figured the cost would have been about half as much and it would probably have cost $100 to have appealed the case to county court.

TWO DEER CHARGE.

Brought Against Guilford Man Who Pleaded Not Guilty.

Brattleboro, Nov. 26.—Dewey Newcomb of Guilford, son of Hollis Newcomb, was in the municipal court yesterday charged with shooting two deer in the open season while the law allows a person to shoot only one. He and his father each reported killing a deer, but County Warden George P. Alexander claims both animals were shot by the son. The young man pleaded not guilty and was put under bonds to appear to-day for trial.

SUSPECTED OF THEFTS.

Four Men Are Being Held in St. Albans for a Hearing.

St. Albans, Nov. 26.—Four arrests were made here yesterday morning, three of them shortly after midnight, which it is believed will put a stop to the robbery of freight cars which has been going on for many months. Joe and Jack Press were arrested on the charge of receiving stolen goods, Herbert L. Bingham was charged with grand larceny and William Tuttle was taken into custody yesterday forenoon. Joe and Jack Press were arrested at a vagrant house on the old fair grounds, where 28 bundles of cowbills were found.

WAS NATIVE OF WARREN.

George R. Farmer Died Suddenly at Penacook, N. H.

Penacook, N. H., Nov. 26.—Just after arising from the Thanksgiving table, and surrounded by the members of his family, gathered for the holiday, George R. Farmer, one of the community's best known men, was suddenly stricken and died yesterday.

The death coming in such a tragic manner saddened the holiday, not only for the members of his family, but for the entire community, in which Mr. Farmer was well and favorably known. Mr. Farmer was born in Warren, Vt., Jan. 30, 1851, but had been a resident of this place for 40 years. He has been prominent here being a deacon of the West church and a member of Penacook Park grange.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Harris and Paul of Concord; one daughter, Mrs. C. H. Quinn of Penacook; two sons, James W. of Brattleboro, Vt., Charles J. of Montpelier, and one son, Mrs. Saville Green of Brattleboro, Vt.

CHOPPER DEAD BENEATH TREE

Charles Jackman, Aged 50, Met Death in Elmore Woods

WAS HIT BY LIMB AS TREE FELL

Two Other Men Were With Him and They Escaped Injury

Morrisville, Nov. 26.—While engaged with two other men in chopping down a tree, Charles Jackman was killed in Elmore this forenoon at 10 o'clock, being struck by a falling tree. William Lumby and Arthur List escaped. The tree became lodged in another tree and the men set to work to disengage the branches. When the tree fell it caught Jackman, who was hit by a branch and instantly killed.

Jackman was about 50 years of age and leaves his wife and three children.

WORKS HARD ON MESSAGE

President Wilson Canceled Cabinet Meeting To-day to Keep at It.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—President Wilson cancelled a cabinet meeting to-day that he might continue his work on his address to Congress. He wrote until a late hour last night but was unable to finish it. The president plans to leave for New York to-morrow morning for the Army-Navy football game.

MAY DELIVER TWO MESSAGES

President Wilson Will Doubtless Have Second Document for Congress to Hear.

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Wilson, it is learned, has rejected various suggestions for incorporation in his next annual address to Congress because of his desire to devote it primarily to the theme of national defense. In all probability he will address Congress later in the season, taking up other questions.

In reply to a letter from Representative Hamilton of New Jersey, asking that civil service be touched on in the address, the president replied that he was forced to deny the request because he wanted the message to deal with one general subject. It is known, however, that the president considers that national defense includes the mobilization of all the nation's resources. For this reason it is understood that subjects like conservation will be mentioned.

The president devoted all of Wednesday to work on the message but did not quite complete it. He expected to get it to the public printer to-day.

DEATH AT EAST ORANGE.

George Bishop, Aged 75, Had Recently Moved from Washington.

George Bishop, aged 75 years, died Thursday morning at 3 o'clock at his home in East Orange after an illness of only three or four days, although he had been in poor health from rheumatism for the past two years. The Bishop family had lived in East Orange only about four months, moving there from Washington, where they had resided for 30 years.

Mr. Bishop is survived by his wife and two sons, George and Bishop of Worcester, Mass., and John Bishop of East Barre; by one sister, Mrs. Aaron Richardson of Washington, and five brothers, Leon and John Bishop of Washington, Augustus Bishop of Arlington, Mass., David Bishop of Canada and Sylvester Bishop of Burke Hollow.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday forenoon at the East Orange church, Rev. S. K. Meek officiating, with burial in the Washington cemetery.

BROKE INTO SHOP.

Whether Any Articles Were Taken Has Not Been Determined.

Someone forced the front door of the New England Annuity Tool works on Blackwell street early Tuesday morning, and apparently took plenty of time to go through the machine shop and storage room. James Aborn, proprietor of the works, discovered the break yesterday and reported the business to the police. Mr. Aborn believes that the burglar might have carried away tools and other articles without their loss being discovered immediately, as a fresh inventory of the stock would be necessary to determine what was taken.

Entrance was gained by forcing the street door and then removing a screw in the built inside. The working force quit the place late Wednesday afternoon and Mr. Aborn left soon afterward. The police investigated the break and have formed an opinion that the work was done after midnight.

NEIGHBORS SAVED HOUSE.

But Barn and Contents Were Burned, With Loss of $5,000.

St. Albans, Nov. 26.—The barn on the farm of Mrs. Carrie Hall at St. Albans was destroyed by fire at 10 o'clock last night, the loss being $5,000, partially covered by insurance. A shed adjoining also was burned, and the neighbors had hard work to save the house.

The fire started on the floor of the barn, near the granary. When the flames were discovered the neighbors turned out to assist F. Beck, the fireman of the town. The house was taken out but some of the tools were destroyed. Much hay and grain were burned, together with a wagon and many manure.

MEADOW BROOK GOLFERS

Gathered at 19th Hole in Clan Gordon Hall for Record Stroke.

Meadow Brook golfers kept open house at Clan Gordon hall on the eve of Thanksgiving, the occasion being the club's third annual banquet. Measured by the standard which past banquets have set, the Wednesday evening gathering was the most successful of the three and incidentally offered the members of the club an opportunity for showing their hospitality in a large way. Nearly 100 people were seated in the early evening and there were enough people who remained for the merry-making afterward to tax the capacity of the dancing floor. Bruce's orchestra played the dancing and through the dinner hour.

Artistic decorations were a feature of the 1915 get-together, very fetching effects having been secured by a committee headed by William Pirie. Japanese lanterns, colored crepe festoons and a novel electric illumination of the club's name just over the orchestra loft figured in the decorative scheme. The dinner was served for the third successive year by Mrs. W. D. Stephens, whose ability in the culinary line had come to be considered as an essential adjunct to Meadow Brook reunions.

President Arthur W. Pirie gave a cordial address of welcome after the dinner had been seated and then the speechmaking was postponed until after the banquet. A number of young men and young women assisted in the serving and the wants of each diner were supplied with dispatch. It was Mr. Pirie who introduced Alex. Miller as the toastmaster, and the latter, in a happy manner, introduced the speakers and singers. Enjoyable solos were rendered in the course of the program by Miss Agnes Keith, Mrs. Alex. McHaffie, Mrs. A. W. Freeland and George Fraser. Harry Clark rendered several songs, impersonating Scotland's famous comedian, Harry Lauder. In a dancing exhibition, Leslie Mercer contributed the sailor's hornpipe and an Irish jig. Through his performance much credit accrues to the pupil himself and his teacher, Robert Stewart.

Evidence of the fraternal relations prevailing between the Meadow Brook club and the Barre Golf club was at hand in the presence of several of the members of the older organization. Telegrams were also received from absent members of the Meadow Brook club, among them being a message from Albert Hurry, now in Jackson, Mich., who felicitated the club on the culmination of another successful season on the links.

Presentations of the various trophies for meritorious playing during the season were made by the president, each announcement being received with loud applause. Follows a list of the awards: President's cup, John Black; second eight cup runner-up, George Brand; championship runner-up, A. W. Freeland; second eight cup, Alex. Miller; championship cup, George H. Fraser; weekly handicap cup, George C. Stewart; watch chain in gold for the winner of the vice-president's trophy, D. F. McLeod.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of A. W. Pirie, D. F. McLeod, Robert Stewart, James Fowler, George Brand, Alex. Miller, George Fraser, Frank McPherson and James Dunbar. The committee worked earnestly as a unit to make the occasion pleasurable for all and to them as well as to Mrs. Stephens, who prepared the banquet, and to William Pirie and George Fraser, the floor managers, is due a good deal of credit.

EGIDIO SEMPREBON.

Granite Cutter Died This Morning After Seven Weeks' Illness.

Egidio Semprebon passed away at his home, 154 North Seminary street, soon after midnight this morning, the end following an illness of seven weeks. Mr. Semprebon is survived by his wife and three children, Angie Semprebon and Guido and Enrico Semprebon. His mother, who is 84 years old, resides in Italy, where two brothers and a sister are also living. Mr. Semprebon was born in the province of Verona, Italy, 44 years ago. He was married in his native town in 1899 and three years later he came to America, settling at once in Barre. He was a granite cutter by trade and prior to his last illness was employed at the Freshy-Coykendall plant. He belonged to the granitecutters' union.

Funeral services will be held at the house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in Hope cemetery. All friends of Mr. Semprebon in the Italian colony of Barre are invited to join in the obsequies.

K. of C. ATTENDED.

Among Others at Funeral of Thomas Marr To-day.

The funeral of Thomas Marr, a well known Barre granitecutter, who passed away at the home of his brother, John Marr of 77 Granite street, Tuesday morning, was held at St. Monica's church this morning at 9 o'clock, the parish priest, Rev. P. M. McKenna, officiating. A representation from Barre council, No. 40, Knights of Columbus, to which the deceased belonged, attended the service and six of their number acted as bearers. They were: Timothy J. Denning, A. H. Burke, Wesley White, John W. Dineen, Thomas Hamel and Edward N. Normandean. There were a number of fine floral tributes. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery on Buckley street.

CRASHED INTO FREIGHT.

South Bound Passenger Train in Collision at Barbury.

The southbound passenger train leaving Montpelier Junction at 6:30 o'clock p. m. ran into the rear end of a freight train, engine 485, at Barbury last evening about 7:30, but no one was injured, although the van of the freight train and the engine leading No. 4, the passenger train were damaged.

Failure of the freight to pull onto a siding in time and the negligence of the baggage man on the freight to warn the passenger train, are believed to be the contributing causes of the accident. It was said that the freight train was backing up to clear the track for the northbound train No. 4, which was pulled by engine 417, the regular engine on the line, having been damaged in the collision so that it was necessary to take it to St. Albans for repairs.

NOT SATISFIED WITH VERDICT

Mrs. Leonard Bergonzi Will Take Her Conviction to Supreme Court

WOMAN WAS FINED $500 WITH $50 COSTS

Conviction Came Largely on Testimony of Persons in Recent Jitney Accident

People generally concerned in a jitney accident on Granite street early in November told the story of their movements in the afternoon just before their misfortune to Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court to-day, when the state case against Mrs. Leonard Bergonzi of Merchant street, charged with selling liquor illegally, came to trial. Before a jury of 12 men, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Robinson of Cabot and Hiram D. Warren of Montpelier testified in behalf of the state, the fourth member of the jury party, Mrs. Fred Ferguson of Montpelier, having been excused from witness duty on account of illness.

Shortly before noon the jury retired and it was 10 minutes later when the foreman, V. E. Ayers, reported a verdict of guilty. Judge Scott sentenced the woman to pay a fine of $500 and costs which will aggregate $50. Pending the arguing of exceptions in supreme court, exceptions taken by the respondent's counsel, H. A. Hoar, execution of sentence is suspended and the woman is at liberty under bonds of $700.

Grand Juror William Wishart conducted the prosecution and the following jury heard the evidence: V. E. Ayers, E. N. Philbrick, B. B. Jackson, Alex. Milne, Peter D. Thom, Edwin Keast, W. M. Holden, J. A. Field, L. S. Gates, James A. Long and E. M. Lyon. A complaint against Mrs. Bergonzi followed to alleged disclosure made, it is said, on the morning following the jitney accident. Mrs. Bergonzi's apartments in the To-morrow block were raided and a considerable quantity of beer and whiskey seized.

Frank Robinson was described by court and prosecuting attorney alike as an adverse witness. Memory was a poor servant with him and for several minutes after his appearance on the stand, he refused to give a connected story of the alleged disclosure. Reference to Mrs. Bergonzi's apartments. Later, however, he returned to the stand and told of purchasing six bottles of beer from the respondent, paying therefor 10 cents per bottle. Witness said they were passed around to Warren, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Ferguson. Hiram D. Warren, the driver of the auto party that stopped in front of Mrs. Bergonzi's, agreed with Robinson that the latter purchased the beer and treated
